

As long as they are free, the future is in doubt.

The United Nations International Criminal Tribunal for the former Yugoslavia (ICTY) has indicted Radovan Karadzic, Ratko Mladic, Stojan Zupljanin, Vlastimir Djordjevic, Goran Hadzic and Zdravko Tolimir for crimes including genocide and crimes against humanity in the former Yugoslavia.

The U.S. Government is offering a reward for information leading to the arrest of these six indictees. All communications will be kept strictly confidential, and those who provide information may be eligible for a reward of up to $5 million and possible relocation with their family.
